

The Buckingham Partnership SCITT

Our vision is to work in partnership with schools to develop the next generation of Outstanding Teachers in Early Years settings, Special schools and mainstream Primary and Secondary schools.

We are proud to be based at and working in collaboration with, the Royal Latin School. With its outstanding reputation for high quality teaching and state of the art facilities our trainees have access to a world class educational environment.

The Buckingham Partnership offers a blend of academic and school-based teacher training across a diverse range of linked schools. The Partnership works closely with the University of Buckingham allowing the course to award both PGCE and QTS.

SCHOOL CENTRED INITIAL TEACHER TRAINING

Trainees are based in school from day one, learning alongside their Mentor in the classroom. Professional Studies training takes place weekly throughout the year at our dedicated SCITT training centre in the heart of the Royal Latin School.

Sessions are delivered by an expert range of speakers every Wednesday and Thursday in the first half term, followed by every Wednesday for the remainder of the course.

Sessions include: Behaviour management, lesson planning, safeguarding, time management and legal obligations of the teacher. We also offer bespoke SEN training, planned in collaboration with national and local experts.

Trainees have daily support from their mentor. In addition, the Professional Tutor in school oversees their training needs and wider pastoral support. Every trainee is allocated a Quality Assurance Tutor who will visit them termly to monitor progress and ensure support is consistent and of the highest quality.
