TEACHER OF FOOD PREPARATION AND NUTRITION (available as a full- or part-time role)

We are seeking to appoint an inspiring, enthusiastic and knowledgeable teacher of Food Preparation and Nutrition from September 2019. The post will be of interest to newly qualified, as well as experienced, teachers who wish to develop professionally and personally in a supportive and happy environment. Candidates should have the ability to teach and plan at Key Stages 3 and 4. Where possible, the ability to deliver Level 3 Food Science and Nutrition at Key Stage 5 would be an advantage. Food is a popular subject, with one third of students opting for it at GCSE.

Relationships between students and staff are excellent at Waddesdon. The most recent SIAMS inspection (March 2018) celebrated this in the following way:

“Relationships are shaped by the focus on the twin values of dignity and respect. There is a palpable sense of Waddesdon being a safe and secure place to be, of a community built on good humour, mutual support and love of self and neighbour; this is seen in lessons and around the school.”

The school is equally strong in terms of results, with a Progress 8 score of 0.73 (Well Above Average) in 2018. In the same year 90% of Food students achieved grade 4 and above and 79% achieved grade 5 and above.

Waddesdon School is an oversubscribed all ability 11–18 school, set in rural Buckinghamshire. The school is 30 minutes away from Oxford and also within easy commuting distance from Milton Keynes. There are just under 1000 students on roll, including 250 in the Sixth Form. The school has an excellent reputation for CPD and recognises and values the contributions of all staff.

There are realistic expectations regarding balancing family and leisure time and workload. Governors have recently changed the Admissions Policy to include children of staff members.

Please see the attached description of the department, the full SIAMS report, and our termly newsletter, The Waddesdon Voice. Testimonials from our staff about the culture and ethos of our school can be found on our website <http://waddesdonschool.com/working-at-waddesdon>
