

Dear Parents and Carers,

Introduction as Your Child's New Form Tutor

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Mrs M Khan, and I am delighted to introduce myself as your child's new form tutor at Waddesdon Church of England School. It is a privilege to take on this role and I am excited to get to know your child and support them throughout this academic year.

As a form tutor, my aim is to provide a welcoming and supportive environment where every student feels valued and encouraged to thrive. Form time is a crucial part of the school day, offering opportunities for personal development, pastoral care and reflection. My goal is to work closely with students, parents and staff to ensure each child reaches their full potential academically, socially and emotionally.

Waddesdon's ethos of inclusivity, faith, and excellence resonates deeply with me and I am committed to fostering these values in our form group. I look forward to building strong relationships with students and parents alike as we work together to make this a successful and fulfilling year.

If you have any questions, concerns or feedback regarding your child's well-being or progress, please do not hesitate to get in touch. Open communication is vital to ensuring the best possible support for your child. You can contact me directly via email at mkhan@waddesdonschool.com

Thank you for your support and I look forward to working closely with you and your child throughout the year.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs M Khan
