

Dear Parents and Carers,

Introduction as the New Head of Religious Studies

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Mrs M Khan and I am thrilled to introduce myself as the new Head of the Religious Studies Department at Waddesdon CE School. It is an honour to join such a vibrant school community, and I am excited to work with your children in exploring one of the most fascinating and thought-provoking subjects on the curriculum.

Religious Studies plays a vital role in fostering critical thinking, empathy and a deep understanding of the diverse world we live in. My goal is to create a stimulating and inclusive environment where students feel empowered to engage with philosophical, ethical and theological questions that help shape their perspectives and character.

With a strong background in teaching Religious Studies, Philosophy & Ethics and a passion for interfaith understanding and dialogue, I am committed to ensuring every student achieves their potential while enjoying their learning journey.

I believe that collaboration between school and home is key to every student's success. If you have any questions, concerns or feedback about the Religious Studies curriculum or even your child's progress, please do not hesitate to reach out to me. I am always happy to discuss how we can work together to support your child's learning.

You can contact me directly via email at mkhan@waddesdonschool.com

Thank you for your ongoing support and I look forward to a productive and inspiring year ahead.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs M Khan
Head of Religious Studies
